

MAN AND DOG IN DESPERATE FIGHT

Great Dane Attacks and Badly Lacerates Arm of Broker Who Prevented Him from Springing at Little Girl.

William F. Cooper, a wealthy broker, of No. 519 Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, procured through his lawyer to-day a summons for Frederick Koofre, a furrier, of No. 48 Bedford avenue, to appear in the Lee Avenue Court to-morrow and defend a charge of maintaining a dangerous dog. The animal, a great Dane of unusual size, attacked the broker last night and almost tore his right arm to pieces.

Mr. Cooper was walking along Bedford avenue toward his home, when he saw the dog jump out from the yard behind the furrier's house and rush, snarling, at a little girl who was playing near the curb.

Believing that the dog, which is as big as a small pony, would attack the child, Mr. Cooper jumped forward and got in front of the brute. The great Dane leaped upon the broker and sank his teeth in his shoulder. The man fell to the ground, and though he struggled with all his strength to beat off the dog his efforts were useless.

After mauling his victim's shoulder the animal, maddened by the taste of blood, continued his attack savagely. Before Mr. Cooper was dragged from under the dog the infuriated animal had inflicted eleven deep wounds in his shoulder and badly lacerated his right hand.

The broker was carried to his home, and Dr. Essex cauterized the wounds. Both the physician and Mr. Cooper insist that the dog be killed. Its owner, Mr. Koofre, asserts that the animal always has been good-natured. It never had been allowed out of the house before, however. Mr. Koofre says that the great Dane is an extremely valuable animal, and to defeat Mr. Cooper's efforts to have it killed he will carry the fight into the higher courts if necessary.

SEEKS HIS AGED MOTHER.

Old Lady Starved for Church, but Never Reached It.

John Hall, a prosperous iron founder, who lives at No. 106 East Eighth-third street, and whose family occupies the entire block on First avenue between One Hundred and First and One Hundred and Second streets, called at the morgue to-day in search of his aged mother. Mrs. Frances Hall, who had been missing from her home with her son since Saturday evening last.

Mr. Hall said that his mother on Saturday evening started for the German Catholic Church on Eighth-seventh street between First Avenue and Avenue A. This she never reached.

Mr. Hall is described as being five feet tall, weighing about 150 pounds, with gray hair and brown eyes. She was dressed in black cloth and wore black shoes. She generally carried a card bearing her name and address in her pocket.

ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1885, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried. During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered. F. C. NORRIS, 1017 Hackberry St., Ottumwa, Ia.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids thrown off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acids must be neutralized and the system cleansed of all impurities and poisons before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other mineral. Book on skin and its diseases free. Medical advice furnished free.

Uncommon Value-giving in Stamped Hemstitched Linen.

Uncommonly good, because they comprise a sample line on which the manufacturer made a large concession and we are passing it along. In the assortment are Tray Cloths, Dollies, Centrepieces, Scarfs and Table Squares
—some with pretty drawn-work corners and insertion, others with double hemstitched and embroidered edging; all stamped in effective patterns. Being a sample line, the designs are widely varied, though there may be but one or two pieces in some designs. The prices:

Tray Cloths from 19c. to 54c.
Dollies from 6c. to 21c.
Centrepieces from 18c. to 54c.
Scarfs from 34c. to $2.34.
Table Squares from 35c. to $1.39.
One-third is a fair estimate of the saving.
Silk Floss Pillows at 34c.
Uncovered Pillows, size 24x24 inches, filled with fine silk floss—dustless and odorless.

Men's Superfine Merino Underwear.

Made to sell at $2.00 a garment. Sale Price, 98c.
Once a year we make an announcement like this. It always concerns goods from one factory and it always meets with a ready response, indicating that a lot of shrewd men have the sale scheduled on their calendars and wait for it. The Shirts and Drawers involved are medium weights—white, gray and tan—in fleecy merino—products of one of the best mills in America.
They are full regular made, finished up without a fault or flaw in fabric, but the inspectors keep them separated from the perfect garments because of some trifling defect in length of legs or sleeves—one may be a trifle longer or a trifle shorter than it really ought to be. Even these are defects that only a keen-eyed inspector can discover, but they bring the garments out of the $2.00 class, and we get them—every season for a special sale. Ready to-day!

Some Special Drapery Purchases We Held Back for Autumn Furnishers.

Around inventory time the chance came to pick up several very desirable lots of Curtains, Draperies and the like that the makers wanted cleared away before they took stock. We were not particularly anxious to take the goods over at that time, because of our annual stock-taking, but the concessions were too important to let pass. So they are here and out on sale to-day, held by until this time because this is Fall furnishing time and hundreds of New York homes are ready for just such economies—

Six hundred pairs of beautifully embroidered Irish Point Curtains, light, dainty patterns, champagne color; full length and width—
Qualities we would sell regularly for $1.74 to $11.74; now, would retail usually at $1.64 pair; sale price.....98c Ruffled Bobbinet Curtains, with Renaissance insertion and edging, 3 yds. long and 40 in. wide; would retail usually at $1.64 pair; sale price.....98c

large range of new designs; grades that would retail ordinarily from $1.84 to $2.89; sale price.....$1.34 to $2.34

manufacture, finished with wide intersections and edges; qualities that should command from $1.94 to $13.49 a lengths—a lot comprising a manufacturer's remnants; regularly worth from
